All Saints Sunday

Reformed worship is centered around the Word, both the Word of scripture and Christ as the Word Incarnate. In worship we gather around the Word, engage with the Word, and respond to the Word.

Bold text is read by the congregation.

*Please rise in body or in spirit.

You may access the online order of worship to follow along on any digital device:

In the presence of a holy God, we become aware of the ways we fall short of God's best hopes for us, and the ways we have hurt others. We turn to God in prayer, asking for forgiveness.

Passing of the Peace is one of the most ancient responses in worship. We invite you to share a sign of peace with your neighbor.

+ At this time children are invited to come forward to the front pew for conversation around our texts for the week.

Introit | The Saints of Our Lives | Written and Sung by Randy Schroeder

*Call to Worship | Liturgist

One: When we stand at the edge of fear and worry,
All: God invites us to step into the waters of faith and trust.

One: When we stand at the edge of the world's pain and need,

All: Jesus invites us to step into the land of humble service.

One: When we stand at the edge of our hunger and thirst:

All: the Spirit invites us to sit at the Table of grace.

*Hymn | Congregational Choice

Call to Confession | Liturgist

Unison Prayer of Confession

When we come to the edge of your holiness, Constant Love, we know how we have not lived as your children. We dam up for ourselves your rivers of love, while the lives around us turn into deserts of loneliness. All too quickly, we place our feet on the quicksand of fear, not wanting to step across to your faith. We tie up our angers and worries and burden our families and friends with them.

Forgive us, Listener to our hearts. By your patient grace, give us more time to practice our calling to discipleship, so we might learn all we need to live as sisters and brothers of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Assurance of Forgiveness

One: This is the good news: God hears you, God forgives you, God is with you as you journey into that land called Promise.

All: Let the redeemed of God say: this is indeed great news! Accepting God's word of joy and grace, we will live as God's children in all the days to come. Amen.

Passing of the Peace

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.

Respond to God's Word

* Hymn | GTG #326 | For All the Saints

Affirmation of Faith | From the Heidelberg Catechism

Liturgist: What do you understand by "the communion of saints"?

All: First, that believers one and all, as members of this community, share in Christ and in all his treasures and gifts. Second, that each member should consider it a duty to use these gifts readily and joyfully for the service and enrichment of the other members.

Words of Offering | Liturgist

Prayer of Dedication | Rev. Kathleen Henrion

Communion of the People

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

One: May creation's Guide be with you!

All: And also with you!

One: Weary wanderers, offer your hearts to God;

All: who takes us by the heart to lead us back to faithfulness.

One: Do not hesitate, but step forward in joy into God's life.

All: We will do so, singing to the One who immerses us in hope.

One: Standing at the edge of chaos... who forever sing your praises:

All: Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of steadfast love.

All creation overflows with your grace and mercy.

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed is the One who calls us to humble service.

Hosanna in the highest!

One: You are holy, Creation's Guide,... we speak of what we believe, great is the mystery of faith:

All: Christ was sent to be God's Witness.

Christ is our Teacher of the Way.

Christ will come to welcome us home.

One: Pour out your Holy Spirit...God in Community, Holy in One. Amen.

*Doxology | GTG #582 | Glory to God, Whose Goodness Shines on Me

Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation. But deliver us from evil. For Thine is the Kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

*Hymn | GTG #521 | In Remembrance of Me

*Blessing and Benediction | Rev. Kathleen Henrion

Postlude | Prelude in C Major (for organ) J.S. Bach | Carol Schmidt

Some Liturgies come from Thom M. Shuman's Lectionary Liturgies:
<http://lectionaryliturgies.blogspot.com/>

The Heidelberg Catechism was completed in 1562 by early Protestant Reformers Zacharias Ursinus and Kaspar Olevianus. The catechism is structured as a series of questions and answers.

Tithes and offerings may be left in the offering plate. Those who prefer to donate electronically are invited to donate through our church website:

Our congregation has a practice of staying seated for the duration of the postlude.

Our worship does not end with the postlude, but continues out into the world, where we are sent to love and care for God's people.

THE SAINTS OF OUR LIVES

- 2 Come to the table of peace...
- 3 Come to the table of love...
- 4 Come to the table of hope...
- 5 Come to the table of joy...

The simple, formulaic nature of this song makes it especially suitable for use during the communion portion of the Lord's Supper. Because it can be learned readily and does not require reference to a printed source, it frees people to sing before and after receiving the elements.

The broad and sweeping tune with which this hymn is so closely identified was created to be sung during a reverent but dramatic procession at the beginning of an All Saints' Day service, an enacted representation of the enduring "fellowship divine" celebrated by this text.

This text is built on four familiar words of Christ at the Last Supper, as recorded in Luke 22:19 and 1 Corinthians 11:24-25. Radiating from that corporate memory of the church, additional actions are encouraged in Christ's voice using allusions to other passages of Scripture.
